DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The indicated allowability of claims 3, 7, 12, and 16 is withdrawn in view of the newly cited rejections that follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 3, 7, 12, 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claims 1, 7, 12, 16 all cite the limitations "includes a leakage element to control an adaptation rate of a slicer threshold". Applicant's specification on page 6, line 2, applicant cites "a leakage element 545, 595 to control an adaptation rate of the slicer threshold 140" and in lines 17-19, "The combiner 415 combines a delayed signal, $v(n-1)$, which passes through the first delay element 405, with the received binary signal, $v_{in}(n)$ and preferably a leakage signal, $v_L(n-1)$. Applicant makes further references to the previous mentioned facts through various portions of the specification. Though applicant makes these references to the leakage element, and leakage signal, applicant fails to disclose how the leakage element or the leakage signal are used to “control an adaptation rate of a slicer threshold” as cited by the claims. Accordingly, the claims have not been further treated on the merits.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 4-6, 8-9, 13-15, 17-18, 20-30 are allowed.
